

The Court Jester (1956)
(101 minutes)

Story: This is a great movie filled with delightful antics and good laughs. A bumbling circus performer, Hubert Hawkins (Danny Kaye), joins the merry men of the forest in their attempt to restore the royal infant to his true place on the throne.

Hawkins assumes the identity of the new court jester Giacomo and the fun begins! The sword fighting scene is a classic! This is Danny Kaye at his best.

Category: Comedy

Rating: Not rated

Values: An ordinary person can accomplish extraordinary things

Who Might Like This: All ages

Cautions: None

Cast: Danny Kaye, Glynis Johns

Principle: President Gordon B. Hinckley: “The major work of the world is done by ordinary people who have learned to work in an extraordinary way” (New Era, January 2000).

Movie Quote: You will probably find yourself repeating: “The vessel with the pestle has the pellet with the poison. The challis from the palace has the brew that is true!”