

TOBY TYLER (1960)
(90 minutes)

Story: This is a Disney classic your whole family will enjoy! Toby Tyler (Kevin Corcoran) is an orphan boy who decides to run away and join the circus when he is told by his uncle that he's a "millstone" around their necks.

He begins working as a peanut/popcorn peddler with a dishonest circus vendor (Bob Sweeney), but receives kindness and protection from a circus worker (Henry Calvin) and a circus clown (Gene Sheldon).

When an arrogant young horse rider is injured in an accident, Toby is given the opportunity to become an actual performer in the big top.

Your children will love all the circus animals, especially Toby's friendship with a mischievous chimp he names Mr. Stubbs. You may want to purchase this one because young children will watch it over and over!

Category: Comedy/drama

Rating: Not rated

Values: Honesty, kindness, families, love, determination

Who Might Like This: Children three and up

Cautions: Mr. Stubbs appears to be killed, but isn't

Cast: Kevin Corcoran, Henry Calvin, Gene Sheldon

Items You May Want to Discuss As You Watch:

- Harry Tupper's dishonesty
- Toby's dishonesty
- How we should treat each other as family members